Allot 1st Funds to Lake Park Project

$20,000 Released From $2 Million Fund For Legal, Appraisal Costs

The first step toward development of the Horseshoe Lake area into a state park was taken by Gov. Ogilvie Monday with the release of $20,000 to defray costs incidental to the early stages of the project.

The governor said the money will be sufficient to cover legal fees, options, appraisals and land surveys.

It was the first release of funds from a total of $2 million appropriated by the General Assembly last year to finance purchase of much of the lake area.

Ogilvie said the total appropriation will not cover the purchase of the land nor the proper development of this area as a state park. There are 1,700 acres of land in Madison and St. Clair counties constituting the lakebed and the shoreline of the lake.

"To provide an adequate recreational lake the cost of this project will be great and, at this point, we have only rough estimates."

"Because I am convinced of the need to develop a new state park in this area, we have decided to proceed with the project," the governor concluded.

The money was released to the Illinois Department of Conservation.

Henry D. Karandjeff, Granite City banker and chairman of the Illinois Horseshoe Lake Commission which sought for two decades to obtain state funds for recreational development of the lake area, said he welcomed the money.

He said the state funds made available to start on the project.

Karandjeff said the state funds and development work will be handled by the Illinois Department of Conservation. The commission will continue to exist, however, to assist in planning further steps of the lake development and in seeking further legislative appropriations which will be necessary to completion of the work.

U. S. Sen. Ralph T. Smith (R-Alton), who was speaker of the House and chief sponsor of the legislation providing $2 million appropriation last summer, said:

"The governor's action is good news to me, but more to many people who worked hard and long over the years to bring this about. To them it signifies achievement of their long-sought goal."

Annexation of New GC School Sites Proposed

The Granite City school board last night adopted resolutions formally recommending that the city of Granite City consider annexing the 11.9-acre Schaefer site on Old Alton road, north of West Pontoon road, where a grade school is planned, and the George Wein tract at Maryville and Nameoki roads where a junior high school and grade school are to be built.

The requests are related to discussions held with a number of public officials on ways to assure sanitary sewers for the two campuses. Last night's action included notifying Long Lake fire district of the proposed Wein tract annexation.

Detailed architectural planning for the construction projects has been delayed pending the provision of sewer service and fire protection.

The new schools are part of a building program authorized by voters in December 1968. A $2.5 million bond issue for a junior high school was started in 1969 and is nearing completion.

Employ Two Teachers
In other business last night, the board hired Mrs. Ida M. Weiss, 2844 Lynch avenue, as a lower primary level teacher at Maryville grade school and Mrs. Margaret Weber, 2844 Lynch avenue, as a teacher of elementary handicapped pupils at McKaysville grade school.

Mr. and Mrs. Weiss has two years of teaching experience. Mrs. Weber has 20 years. Mrs. Weiss was hired as teacher for primary-level training for handicapped students. Mrs. Weber was hired as a teacher at the school where she has been employed since 1964.

The board also accepted the (Continued on page 11, col. 8)

Sinking Manhole Shears Sewer On Oaklawn Dr.

Still another sewer break in the Nameoki area sanitary systems was reported yesterday at the intersection of an easement at the rear of 34 Oaklawn drive.

The break was confirmed yesterday when street department workers entered a manhole in a continuing effort to remove a started pipe of sewer cleaning equipment and discovered the manhole is sinking and has sheared the eight-inch sewer line which also shows a sharp dip about two or three pole lengths away. The line is 12 feet underground.

Street Sanit. Warfield said it is likely that sewage will have to be pumped around the break. He added that pumping also may have to be started this week at the lift station and manhole in the 2800 block of Lincoln avenue where repairs were authorized by the council last week.

The sewer line break repairs there are being delayed because of the necessity to relocate a six-inch, high-pressure gas line.

To date, sewer repair costs in the past year have cost the city nearly $80,000. An audit to determine the exact cost was requested at this week's council session.

Council Votes To Borrow From Bank; Amount Not Set

(Related Story, Page 3B)
It was touch-and-go for a few minutes, but Granite City council members voted after five roll calls — (finally voted 11-to-3) to borrow money for operational costs and avoid city employee layoffs.

No amount was specified in the authorization ordinance as the city has no idea of its costs recovered for February and March. Aldermen Morrien, Francis, committee chairman said the ordinance that tax anticipation warrants will be issued only as funds are needed, in a move to hold down interest costs.

"The committee will submit the amount to the council for approval as a tax anticipation warrant is needed," he added.

Actually, on the first roll call, the ordinance for issuing tax anticipation warrants was rejected, 10 to 4, to meet suspension of rules requirements, and the bill was placed on first reading.

Citizens To Draft Nameoki Budget

Public Invited To Special Meeting For Fixing 1970-71 Costs

A new approach to preparation of the annual budget and appropriation bill in which the taxpayer public will be asked to participate in preparing the 1970-71 fiscal year was announced by the Nameoki town board Monday night.

Town Clerk Louis Whitsett described the plan as a move to restore "grass roots" involvement in town planning and said he and the town auditors feel "the people who pay the bill should have something to say about how the money is spent."

The board authorized Whitsett to call a special meeting for 7 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 7 to discuss preparation of the township's tentative 1970-71 budget.

The public will be invited to a meeting and will be welcome to participate in the discussions. Board members said.

During that meeting the town board also will select a "citizens committee" to meet with the public to complete the tentative budget in time for it to be posted for public inspection in February or early March, as required by state law.

Budget Filed 30 Days
All townships are required by law to post a "tentative" budget for public inspection over a 10-day period, followed by a public hearing in March and final adoption of the budget and an accompanying tax levy during the township's annual meeting in April.

In past years the tentative budget has required to be posted not later than the first Tuesday in March and the annual town meeting has been held on the first Tuesday of April. Because the annual town meeting date conflicted with the date of the legislative election, the legislature last year moved the deadline dates one week later. The new deadline dates are now posted not later than March 10 and the town's annual meeting will be held on April 1.

Under the proposed ordinance, the police department and the other for the fire department—the appointments would be made by the council.

Mayer Parney said yesterday he did not plan to fight the proposals. "If that's what the council wants, let them have it."

"Feel Sorry for Chiefs"
He added, "I feel sorry for the chiefs who would have 16 bosses instead of one. I don't know how they'll be able to run their departments with 16 persons telling them how to do it."

And, they're discussing the police and fire chiefs who will be going to the aldermen with complaints. "We'll probably have a new police chief or fire chief every 20 days."

The mayor added that he studied economic reports and conferred with the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners before selecting Police Chief Ronald Veer and Fire Chief Earl Frumbarger, "and I believe they are the best men for the job."

Levee District Payroll $658,355 in 1969

Unwary motorists following the deep freeze and thaw. It is hoped federal funds for improving the stretch between Granite City and Mitchell will be "thawed" shortly to permit the work to begin this spring.

The East Side Levee and Sanitary district, in which the public will be invited to a meeting and will be welcome to participate in the discussions. Board members said.

The district's annual report revealed today that the district's annual report for the 1969 fiscal year, extending from Jan. 1 to Dec. 31, 1969, is published in today's issue of the Press-Record.

The report also lists 1969 general fund expenses totaling $37,904, up $22,187 over the $15,717 in general fund disbursements of 1968.

The substantial increase in actual expenditures in wages last year follows the recent public posting of a new 1970 levee district budget which projects total salary and wage expenditures which began Jan. 1.

Set Budget Hearing
The levee district board has scheduled a public hearing at 10 a.m. Feb. 9 to consider final adoption of the new budget and that receipt for all funds, which is an all-time record of $1,322,275.

The report shows income of the general fund during the 1969 year amounted to $3,400,344 and that the district's income, including the payroll clearing account and all of the various bond funds amounted to $5,310,293.

With balances at the beginning of the year, amounting to $1,008,668, this gave the levee district a book figure income of $6,991,661 for the 1969 year. Because of the levee district's unusual system of bookkeeping in which it clears all revenue through the general fund, then redistributes the money to other accounts and lists the transfers in those funds, the total figure shown in the report is highly inflated.

GC Aldermen Want to Name Dept. Chiefs

Two ordinances designed to take away from the mayor the authority to appoint the fire chief and police chief are under study by Granite City council members, and action on the measures is likely next Monday night.

Copies were distributed to the council members at the start of Monday night's session this week, but no mention of them was made during the meeting.

Under the proposed ordinance, the police department and the other for the fire department—the appointments would be made by the council.

1969 Assessments To County Clerk

New personal property valuations and altered realty assessments for the 1969 tax year, against which tax bills will be extended for collection.

The assessments include only additions or changes in real estate values since a full assessment of real estate property is made each four years. The new quadrennial assessment of real property is scheduled this year, by the Illinois State Department of Revenue to determine if the county shall maintain its present multiplying factor of one.

The determination is made on the basis of the ratio of fair cash value of property upon which values are made legally.

Witness in Rail Theft Case Found Beaten, Bound

A Granite City man scheduled to be a witness in a federal case was found beaten and bound around the highway at Old Route 66 and Sand road, east of Mitchell by night riders in a sheriff's patrol car at 7:10 p.m. Tuesday.

He is Ronald Mayo, 29, of 304 Gaslight Walk, who was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital in St. Louis. He was in a serious condition and then was transferred to Finns Desloge Hospital in St. Louis.

Dennis Nicholas, chief assistant deputy sheriff who investigated, said Mayo had gone to Finns market, 465 Penton road, for a six-pack of soda, and when he returned to his auto on the parking lot, he was jumped from behind by three men who had a gun. His hands were tied behind his back with his own belt. He was not hurt.

Nicholas said Mayo became taken at times during the night and uttered requests to contact the FBI, which was done Wednesday morning. It was learned that the federal case involved theft of copper from a train.

Mayo is a switchman employed by the Terminal Railroad Association. FBI agents and county authorities are investigating.

Man Beaten, Injured By Four Assailants

Salvation Army Board Names 2 Life Members

Two Traffic Tickets
James C. Taylor, 1728 Cleveland blvd., was issued a stop ticket at 23rd street and Delmar avenue and a speeding ticket at 20th street and Cleveland blvd. at 11:50 p.m. Tuesday.

George Stearns and Albert Michel, two long-time members of the Salvation Army Advisory Board, were designated honorary lifetime board members Monday upon their resignation from the active governing body, Edward L. Stone, president, announced this week.

Both men have been closely associated with numerous activities of the local Salvation Army for many years. Stearns served last year on the property committee and Michel was a member of the welfare committee.

At the group's regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon, at the Grand Cafe, local board members commended highly the efforts of Mrs. Lily Chaboude, who served as general chairman of the 1969 "Tree of Lights" campaign. An active civic leader, Mrs. Chaboude was the first woman to head the annual drive for funds to aid needy Quad-City families at Christmas time. Noting that Mrs. Chaboude and her volunteer workers "accomplished an outstanding job in the campaign," Capt. Harold F. Thomas reported the 1969 Air Force Base Hospital and three area nursing homes; 431 by nearly $3800.

With the contributions, 458 families were assisted with food baskets or food orders, representing 1771 individuals; 753 children received toys through the Army's toy shop project; 460 youngsters were outfitted with new coats or shoes; 415 gifts were distributed at Scott F. Thomas reported the 1969 Air Force Base Hospital and three area nursing homes; 431 remembrances sent to servicemen and women; and 924 families aided through the Salvation Army's clearing house program with coordinates gift projects for local clubs and service organizations. In preparation for the annual election of board members and officers, Stone appointed Roy Lynn to head a nominating committee, comprised of Mrs.

Elvira Thurber, Harry Johnson and Arthur Harris. The committee is expected to present a slate of directors and officers at the February meeting, with an election date to be set later. Fourteen members attended the luncheon session.

Member Award Nominations to Area PTA Due

Dale Rea, awards chairman of the Granite City Area PTA Council, has announced that the deadline for nominations for "outstanding PTA member" is Feb. 6. The award will be presented Feb. 26 at the annual Area PTA banquet, to be held at the Granite City high school cafeteria.

Rea also has announced that rules governing the award have been changed. Any eligible person may now receive two life memberships, or donate the money to PTA building or scholarship funds.

Mrs. Ula Brazier of East Alton will be guest speaker at the banquet. She is retiring this year as president of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The Area Council has received an invitation from Richard Barnett, principal of Lake school, inviting all interested parents to the school's next PTA meeting on Feb. 17, when the subject of the program will be "Discipline." The speaker will be Dr. Raymond Troyer, who is on sabbatical leave from SIU-SW.

The state convention of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers will be held April 16, 17 and 18, in Springfield, the Area PTA has been advised. This is the first time the convention has been held outside the Chicago area.

Persons planning to attend are being urged to make early reservations, as the Constitutional Convention and General Assembly may be meeting in Springfield during the same period. Mrs. Mary Holland, District 29 director, has reported.

Dr. Benjamin Rose, council president, has appointed the following to serve on a nominating committee for 1970-71 officers: Robert Kirgan, Parkview school; Mrs. Juanita Hunter, McKinley school; Mrs. Vera Farrow, Nameoki school; Mary Elmore, Niedringhaus school; and Harold Brandon, Maryville and Grigsby schools. The safety committee of the Area Council currently is working toward obtaining suitable crossing facilities at schools not now served by either lights or crossing guards.

Coming events include a Feb. 1 final date for forms and dues to be sent in to the state PTA; an all-day parent workshop Feb. 24 at SIU-SW; and a March 5 scholarship council meeting to pick a recipient winner from District 29.

Questionnaires have been sent to all units concerning a more convenient date for the fall district conference.

Award Presentations For Cub Scout Pack 19

Jody White, outdoorsman badge; Frank Nolan and Ronald Mosby, wolf badges turned; Michael Christich, wolf badge upside down; and Terry Sheppard was awarded a special trophy for doing the most work of his Den in a month's time.

Den Three received a flag with the Den number on it for selling the most roller skating tickets in October.

Tickets for a new project were distributed, and an announcement was made of the annual Blue and Gold banquet on Feb. 23.

Mrs. Maxine Barnstable gave the treasurer's report, and skits were given by Den's One, Two, Three and Four, and the Webelos, all in a "Knight's in Shining Armour" theme.

Latin-America Working At Program of Self-Help

Latin-America countries are assigning high priority and a "great deal of plan, hard work" to self-help and social improvement in a trend toward "nationalism," State Sen. Merrill Otwell (R-Edwardsville) said today after his return from a fast-paced working trip to Ecuador, Honduras and Mexico.

Sen. Otwell spent a week in each of the three countries in behalf of the United Church of Christ, Board for World Ministries. The senator is a member of the board of directors of this group.

Reporting on the new trend toward nationalism—in which he said Peru and Bolivia currently are getting the most publicity—Sen. Otwell said, "I believe this to be a very healthy sign and there are indications that our massive aid programs since world war II are finally paying off."

He would rather interpret the movement as a revolt against paternalism or patronization. These countries no longer want to be subjects of the "Great White Father, America," he said. He said the purpose of his trip was to look for ways to enhance the service ministries of this group.

Powell Says Sheriffs Should Succeed Selves

Sheriffs of Illinois counties should be permitted to succeed themselves in office, Secretary of State Paul Powell told members of the Illinois Sheriffs Association during the final meeting of their state convention in Springfield Tuesday.

Powell said he made this recommendation to the Illinois Constitutional Convention when he addressed that body last week, and included county treasurers and state treasurers in his recommendation.

The secretary of state told the convention delegates that he sees "no reason for this barrier to continue to exist, because if a sheriff serves his county well, then he should be allowed to succeed himself and be re-elected on his record."

A law enforcement officials have not been receiving the cooperation they deserve from the public, Powell said, noting that "you and the policemen risk your lives protecting our property, our wives and children, and too often wind up being ridiculed for the way you did your job."

He said the job of keeping the nation safe "is a job for all of us, but mostly for all of you who have a badge. The public must have faith in you."

Page for State Board, Non-Public School Aids

Illinois Supt. of Public Instruction Ray Page on Tuesday recommended three constitutional changes to the Illinois Constitutional Convention—making the bond debt limit of unit school districts the same as the combined limit of elementary and high school districts, providing financial aid to non-public schools, and creating a state board of education with authority from nursery school and kindergarten through university and graduate courses.

The latter proposal included eliminating his post as an elective office. Page had conferred Monday with his 46-member general advisory committee, which includes Alton Supt. J. B. Johnson and Highland Supt. Olin W. Stratton.

Elks Lodge Names Two Leadership Contest Winners

Miss Barbara Azari and Richard Cardwell, local high school seniors whose qualities of leadership won first prize honors in Granite City Elks Lodge 1063 "Leadership Contest," were each presented a $50 U. S. Savings Bond at the lodge's regular meeting Tuesday evening.

George M. Gordon, contest chairman, also announced that Cardwell has been designated the top contestant in the Elks' Southwest Illinois District Contest and will receive an additional $100 Savings Bond.

Cardwell, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Cardwell, 3293 Edgewood drive, is now thought to compete with winners at the state level for a first prize of $400 or a second prize of $250.

District winners will compete for the top state awards, with the top ranked contestants advised on Feb. 14.

Winners at the state level are then entered in the Elks National Leadership Contest, to be announced April 4, will receive a first place award of $2000 U. S. Savings Bonds; second place, $1800 Savings Bonds; and third place, $1250 Savings Bonds.

Miss Azari is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Azari, 3021 Edgewood drive.

The basis for selecting the outstanding youth leaders for the local, district, state and national contests include leadership, citizenship, Americanism and citizenship appreciation, perseverance, resourcefulness and sense of humor, neatness and arrangement of brochure and compliance with instructions.

The Leadership Contest, once sponsored annually by the local Elks lodge, but discontinued several years ago, was revived this year as a service to "our outstanding youth in the community," Gordon pointed out.

Local judges were Gordon, Robert Hendrickson, William Russell, Robert Crain and the late Vincent B. Biondi.

In other business, David Whitsell, acting exalted ruler, announced reservations are being accepted for a St. Valentine's Day dance on Feb. 14, and reported initiation of new members will take place Feb. 24.

Grummel told officers he was headed east on Fifth street when Goskie's car pulled away from the curb.

6 Adults Receive Diplomas at GCHS

Six adults received high school diplomas last night at Granite City high school after completing the required courses during the night-time Win Back program instituted by Principal Lawrence McCauley.

The recipients include Miss Linda K. Clutts, Mrs. Christine M. (Cynarski) Nemeth, Lynn E. Rider, Raymond P. Kahn, Larry J. Huett and Phillip R. Fannings.

With last night's informal ceremony, 75 persons have earned high school graduation diplomas under the 2½-year-old Win Back program, which is open to Granite City-area over 18 years of age.

The arresting Granite City police officer advised the Press-Record Tuesday that he omitted the designation "junior" when he ticketed Donald P. Abernathy, 2100 Wilson avenue, last week on a charge of speeding.

Commenting after the meeting, Parney said he recalled the council, acting as the town board of auditors, approving a tax anticipation warrant for the township and then granting a $5000-a-year pay increase to a township officer.

The city is to borrow the money from the First Granite City National Bank. "I know of

Bi-State Seeks $900,000 For Express Routes

The Bi-State Development Agency has applied to the U.S. Department of Transportation's Urban Mass Transportation Administration for a $900,000 service development grant to add seven new express bus routes to the present operations of Bi-State Transit System and extend the service of three others, Col. R. E. Smyser, executive director of the agency, reported to the board of directors yesterday.

The proposed service extension is an element of the Transit Development program announced last August when Bi-State adopted the plan for upgrading the mass transportation system for Illinois and Missouri during the next six years pending development of a rapid transit system for the metropolitan area, Col. Smyser said.

Addition of new express bus lines is only one facet of the overall program aimed at maintaining and improving the Bi-State Transit System, he said. Four new express routes are planned in Missouri. New routes in Illinois would serve O'Fallon, Edwardsville and Alton and the present express route east of Belleville Square would be extended about one mile.

To Serve New Areas

"The new, two-directional express lines will be radial in nature, connecting the central business districts of St. Louis and East St. Louis with the outlying areas in both states," Col. Smyser told the commissioners.

The lines will serve areas presently not served by express service or now served only by feeder lines or local buses.

He said new lines will provide express commuter service and supplement the morning-evening reverse direction "worker" service now provided between public housing areas and suburban job centers.

The Bi-State board also approved plans to seek a $800,000 appropriation for the next fiscal year from the state of Missouri to implement the Transit Development program of 1969-1975. The money would be used in seeking federal grants for the purchase of new buses and traffic control equipment needed by highways to handle the increased traffic volume and to upgrade and improve the present system and integrate it to meet the requirements of a modern rapid transit network in the future.

16 Industrial Developments in Area During 1969

Sixteen industrial developments occurred in the Madison-St. Clair county area in 1969, according to a report presented to the board of directors of Illinois Metro-East by Harold Fischer of Granite City, in meeting at Collinsville yesterday.

EUGENE L. AIASSI

Aiassi Nominated as Creative Personality

Eugene L. Aiassi, art education consultant of the Granite City school district, has been nominated by International Personnel Research of California to have his biography appear in "1970 Creative and Successful Personalities of the World."

It is an annual presentation of noteworthy creative persons from all professions. The book is the only biographical publication of its kind in the world except for the Dictionary of International Biography, in which work is studied by an international board of regents before final selections are made.

The book is not available to dealers. It is placed in government and state libraries and is available to university reference libraries.

Criteria are that the person is "beginning to carve his unusual niche in the world," with outstanding and different creativity; recognizes problems and finds solutions; has a life balanced by heightened sensitivity and creative expression; moves with energy, direction and consuming interest in his work; is usually alone at the birth of a new idea; reaches the public through some medium of communication, using a novel approach which becomes accepted as useful; has made a definite local, state and national contribution in his field; and is "motivated by desire for an organization or arrangement which does not exist, visualizing new materials of his imagination and combining them in an existing order of things."

Minor Collision Damage

Minor damage was caused to cars driven by Donald Turkal Jr., 3051 Sinclair avenue, and Leslie Kovats of No. 1 William John Court, as the result of a collision on the McCambridge avenue viaduct in Madison about 5:45 p.m. Tuesday, police reported. Officers said the mishap occurred as Kovats was passing the Turkal car and his wheels skidded.

N. C. Outland, 65, of 3110 East 23rd street, pleaded guilty to a disorderly conduct charge Wednesday afternoon and was fined $25 and costs by Magistrate Matosian. He was arrested last Saturday at the Kruger store.

Fewer Than 1968

The 16 industrial developments in 1969 were fewer than those of 1968 when 23 industrial expansions were announced or built in the area. The decrease is a result of the reduction in the number of new plants in 1969. During 1968, Fischer reported, 15 new plants were built or announced in contrast to the seven in 1969.

Eight Modernizations or Expansions

Eight modernizations or expansions occurred both in 1968 and 1969. Fischer told the board that credit needs to be given to many people, not just one person or one organization, for this new growth. The list, he said, includes executives of chambers, planners and realtors as well as members of development corporations.

Downtown Mall Subcommittee Named This Week

A subcommittee of the Chamber of Commerce Downtown Renewal committee was named this week to begin contacting downtown Granite City property owners for commitments toward the planned mall and semi-mall.

Named to the committee were C. E. Townsend, editor-publisher of the Press-Record; Carl Mathias, area manager for Illinois Power Co.; E. A. Karandjeff, president of the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank; Paul Lichtenberger, president of the First Granite City National Bank; and Maurice Rich, president of the downtown businessmen's group.

Henry Gabriel, local architect and chairman of the Downtown Renewal committee, said the commitments are to be for a maximum of $80 a front foot.

The full mall is planned for two blocks of Niedringhaus avenue between Cleveland and Edison avenues and a d the semi-mall for three blocks of 19th street between Cleveland and State street.

Gabriel said another outline of the downtown improvement plan is to be made next Thursday at the Optimist Club meeting by Malcolm Drummond of the Harland Bartholomew & Associates planning firm.

GC Clean Air Board Gets Fumes Complaint

Investigation is being made by Granite City's Air Pollution Control board of complaints concerning excessive hydrogen sulphide fumes made by residents along East 24th street.

Theodore Macios, vice-chairman of the city board, said yesterday the complaints have been forwarded to the city's technical secretary, Prof. Erwin Hoelscher, who is making surveys this week to determine a possible source.

Macios said one complainant related that his throat and nose were irritated by the fumes despite the fact that he was suffering from a severe cold. The fumes were most prevalent last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Macios was told. Prof. Hoelscher is to report his findings to the city board chairman, Henry Bieneck.

reporting expenditures. The report shows total disbursements of $3,348,135 during the year but this amount, like the revenue figure, is also highly inflated. Actually the levee district could collect no more than $2 million on its last year's tax rate of .391 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Balances listed in the annual report at the end of 1969 total $1,643,325, but these are primarily in the nine different bond accounts and three different construction fund accounts in which the district has been carrying a sizeable balance from year to year.

A distribution of the total balance at the end of the year shows only $924,610 in the general fund, only $8615 in the payroll clearing, account and $37,791 in the municipal retirement fund.

Repay Tax Warrants

The report lists among major disbursements of $1,000,000 a payment of $602,874 to the Bank of Cahokia for repayment of tax anticipation warrants plus interest.

Among regular general fund expenditures, and not included in the payroll clearing account, is payment of $29,046 to John Sprague, Belleville attorney, for legal fees. Payment of $600 to Frank Summers, East St. Louis attorney, is listed, as is the sum of $6600 for Attorney John J. Hoban of Belleville, also for attorney fees.

David Johnston, consulting engineer, received $10,453 services and $10,526 was paid to the St. Louis Bag Co. for sand bags. A. H. Seebold Co. of Granite City was paid $16,337 for rental of aluminum pipe.

List Bond Payments

Expenditures for retirement of bond principal and interest during the year, the report states, included:

Combined account, $527,896; Account 20, $132,532; Account 22, $249,319; Account 23, $38,073; Account 24, $24,000; Account 22, $70,971; Account 25, $59,543; Account 33, $12,611; and Account 34, $23,143.

Construction fund payments included $20,309 on Ordinance No. 26, $16,534 on Ordinance No. 613, and $67,006 on Ordinance No. 618.

Prune Fruit Trees

Winter is the best time to prune bearing fruit trees, reports Chris Doll, Area Extension Advisor, in Edwardsville.

There are many reasons for pruning fruit trees, but the most important is to improve the quality and size of the crop. Pruning also keeps a tree vigorous and insures the growth of new fruiting wood.

Branches should be thinned out to make spraying and picking easier, but poor pruning may be worse than no pruning at all. Non-bearing trees should receive only light pruning to develop tree structure.

Remove dead, broken or diseased limbs, and thin out areas of dense growth. Make the cuts close to the limb base, but don't leave a stub. The stubs die, and the cut from heating and make a good place for wood rot. Paint all cuts that are larger than two inches in diameter.

A rule-of-thumb is to remove two-to-five percent of the bearing wood from dwarf apple trees, five-to-10 percent from regular apple trees, 10-to-20 percent from peach trees, four-to-eighth percent from red tart cherry trees and six-to-10 percent from plums. In early bearing years use the lower figure.

Start Behavior Patterns Early

Since children begin to form habits at a very early age, it's up to mothers to set the pattern she wants followed.

It is important that a baby learn there's a time and a place for everything. How and when to eat, play, and high chair are used can play a vital role in establishing behavior patterns.

If the crib is used as a playpen as well as a bed, baby won't be sure whether he is expected to use himself or go to sleep. But if put into the crib only for sleeping, he forms the habit of dropping off to sleep without much fuss.

If the high chair is both a playpen and a dining table, he doesn't learn to associate the chair with mealtime. In fact, he may become irritable and prefer a toy to his spinach. Only when each of his possessions has a special purpose, does baby learn what mother expects of him.

By learning to expect some treat after his bath, such as freedom to crawl, baby learns to look forward with pleasure to both.

Rigid rules are no longer recommended for raising a healthy baby. But a certain amount of regularity contributes to his sense of security and also makes life easier for mother.

Parents can do much to help their children do well in school. These suggestions may help:

- Try to provide a calm, cheerful, happy home atmosphere.
- Teach good health habits and see that children are physically fit.
- Show an interest in children's school work and other activities.
- Get acquainted with children's teachers. A study group, PTA and similar community organizations.
- Provide good books for children to read.
- Provide experiences outside the school room, such as visits to parks, libraries and community programs.
- Give your children the opportunity to play with other children.
- Respect children's feelings, ideas, property and time.
- Realize that each child is a unique person.

Visiting with Grandparents

Frequent visits with grandparents can help children expand their view of life. Grandparents can provide a wealth of information. And reminiscing helps children learn what has gone on in the past. A child's association with an older person also gives him a glimpse of what to expect in the future.

For older trees use the larger figure. Keep the trees low and open. Annual pruning will make this much easier.

Overgrown Trees

Remodeling a tree is more expensive than buying a new one if it spoils your landscape or requires pruning.

Remodeled trees create better pictures. They emphasize your home and landscape plantings. Medium size trees are easily pruned to improve their landscape value while large trees become an ugly stub.

Major pruning to reduce size is more expensive than topping and creating stubs but promotes beauty and long life. In many cases the cost of pruning is 65% of the cost of cutting down the tree and removing the wood. If wires and building are nearby the cost of remodeling may be the same as removal. When replacing a tree to maintain size, the total costs will be greater than the cost of removal.

Removal is always a consideration when your present trees are too large or crippled. Gradual replanting will improve your total landscape as you select better locations, smaller size and qualities of beauty to fit your landscape.

Flu Bug Hitting Area-- But 'Not Like last Year'

The flu bug has hit the Quad-Cities area—but not as seriously as last year, the Press-Record has learned from a telephone survey of school districts and industrial plants. One company spokesman reported that supervisory personnel in some departments have had to double-over to cover absent foremen.

U. S. May Raise Transportation Grants For Area

A large sum of money may be allocated St. Louis area transportation operations as a result of revision of the federal government's shared-cost formula, the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council was told yesterday by Clyde E. Sweet, council director of planning.

The Bi-State Development Agency was informed in 1968 that it would no longer qualify for grants equalling two-thirds of project costs, and that the agency would be cut back to a 50% federal share.

Sweet told the council that recent meetings with federal officials make him confident that the two-thirds share plan will be restored. "If it is, it will mean hundreds of thousands of dollars with the federal government paying the larger share," he said.

He said credit was due the Council for helping Bi-State regain its eligibility by coordinating transportation proposals and working with Bi-State in revising its Development program.

Henry Karandjoff, Granite City banker and newly elected chairman of the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission, was seated during the meeting to replace Barney Meitz, mayor of Dupon.

Raymond Rippelmeier, chairman of the board of commissioners of Monroe county, also was seated as a new member, under the recent decision to expand the board's membership to include representation outside government agencies.

"Involved are at least 938 school children and a possible loss of $1,833,176 in federal assistance according to June 30, 1968, figures. According to last year 1969 figures, these schools are entitled to $2,364,227 in impact aid," Cong. Price told the Press-Record.

Aggressive Defense by Tigers Shackles MHS

"They pressed us right out of the gym," said Coach Larry Graham after his basketball Trojans lost 64-48 at Edwardsville Tuesday.

"Edwardsville played a hard ball game. We couldn't get the ball past the midcourt line," Madison scored a weak six points as the Tigers tallied 17 in the first quarter. The margin had been closed to 21-17 by half time, but the Trojans' fourth-point third period allowed Edwardsville to compile a 48-25 advantage.

Graham added, "The only good thing was I found out that the juniors (Philip Davis, Darryl Fletcher and Larry Boyds) can do the job and they'll probably be in the game earlier if this happens again."

Improve at Free Throw Line
Not helping itself from the foul line, Madison hoped only two of 16 free throws before intermission. Eight successful charity throws in a row during the fourth quarter boosted the MHS game total to ten for 28 tries.

Guard John Ervin of Madison was ill and did not dress for the game. Tiger Brian Wendler earned scoring honors with 20 points. Madison scorers were Tom Noel, 13, Joe Dorier eight, Oscar Hagler seven, Charles Bogale six, Boyd six, Davis five, Fletcher two and William Cannon, one.

Rozans visits the MHS gym at 8 p.m. Friday. Graham comments, "It'll be interesting to see how the boys respond after losing so badly."

It will be the first of two meetings this season between the two Midwestern Conference schools.

Devils Held To 41 Points By Lincoln

Madison high varsity won 60-30 at Edwardsville Tuesday preceding the varsity contest and won 76-59 in hosting Assumption Wednesday to reverse an earlier result with Assumption.

Against Edwardsville, the Trojans were led by Clinton Burkhalter 19 and Larry Boyd's 15 points.

The Assumption game was hard fought in the early going. Madison rolled to an easy victory, led by Guard P. J. Davis, 26, Edwards Chandler, 16, and Boyd, 15.

Larry Harris, Jim Olenford and Steve Richard Gonterman, two apiece.

Lincoln led at all periods, 17-10, 34-23 and 63-28. During the third quarter the Tigers connected for 15 consecutive points to break the game open.

Coach Bill Olenford noted, "I cut out of our forwards early. We started pressing and forcing our shots."

Lincoln's 67-7 sophomores, took point honors with 21.

Conference Contests

To Occupy Warriors

The Warriors will begin a three-week slate of Southwestern Conference games by playing at Belleville West Friday, with an 8 p.m. tipoff time.

In this season's earlier encounter, the Maroons were 65-58 victors; the Warriors hit only 30% from the floor.

Comparing team heights with the Maroons, GCHS success appears to depend on field goal accuracy from the 15 to 20-foot range against Belleville West's man-on-man defense.

Key GCHS outside shooters carry into Friday's contest a three-game percentage slump. Their shooting accuracy this season has varied from 30% to 60% on consecutive nights, without regard for the opposition's defensive reputation.

The other loop games will be Feb. 6 at East St. Louis, Feb. 7 with Edwardsville, Feb. 14 with Wood River and Feb. 20 at Alton.

Rough Winter for Birds

By PETE BROWN
OF SIU News Service

Like we said last fall, the signs pointed to a rough winter, remember? Like a guy said, "This weather is strictly for the birds."

Don't try to tell the birds that. A combination of climatic events following on each other's heels in a four-day span may have dealt a harsh blow to wintering birds in southern Illinois.

First it was snow, then freezing rain that glazed everything in sight. Then more snow, and then bone-cracking cold. William George, a Southern Illinois University avian biologist who keeps records of wintering flocks on his hilltop spread near Coblen, says the sequence apparently decimated his feathered friends.

George and his wife have banded birds, fed them, censused them, and maintained meticulous records on the Coblen site for the past five years. Of all the birds they marked this winter, 60% disappeared within two days following the rain-freeze.

That included 40 cardinals out of 70, to name one unlucky species. Fox sparrows, seldom seen at the George's backyard feeders in other winters, completely vanished after the storm.

Flocks Drop to Dozen

Looking through his window at the frozen landscape in that Arctic week of January, George routinely counted a dozen to 15 birds roosting at any time. Before that, flocks of 100 to 150 were customary.

The survivors—or hangers-on—are a strange-behaving lot. Sparrows feed at the wired strings of suet, and do so flickers, a sight George had never before witnessed. Juncos, also ground-feeders, struggle with the suet, too.

The feeder drew some real straits out of the field. George spotted three junco-throated sparrow hybrids at one time. He says they're the first ever seen outside of western Pennsylvania. Swamp sparrows showed up for the first time.

What accounted for the population decline, the most pronounced in his years as an ornithologist? Certainly they didn't move out in search of food, because the George kept their table loud.

He found several frozen to death. His opinion is that when the rain turned to ice it clogged

Meeting Feb. 9 on Policy Regarding River Duck Blinds

River hunters interested in the allocation of blinds on the Mississippi or lower Illinois rivers are being urged to attend a meeting at 9 a.m. Monday, Feb. 9, in Room 700 of the State Office Building in Springfield.

Dan Malkovich, acting director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, said he wants to find a fair way to provide blinds for hunters on federal lands managed for duck hunting by the state conservation department.

The land is on the Mississippi River and Pool 26 of the lower Illinois River.

"We have heard and read strong opinion for continuing the practice of allowing hunters who built blinds on these public lands in the past to have the right to continue to use them," Malkovich said. "We have heard and read equally strong opinions from hunters who have never had a chance to build a blind on these grounds but who want an opportunity to do so."

"There are pros and cons on both sides, I believe we can arrive at a fair solution. Nothing else but the duck blind situation will be discussed at this meeting."

A base price increase of 20 cents per 100 pounds for hot rolled carbon steel bands and hot rolled carbon steel sheet and strip was announced by Granite City Steel Co. yesterday along with other increases designed to bring the company's prices in line with those announced recently by other steel producers.

Other price boosts announced yesterday included a rise of 25 cents per 100 pounds for cold rolled carbon steel sheet, and 30 cents per 100 pounds for galvanized sheet, galvanized roofing and siding and galvanized culvert sheet.

Songbirds Fed in Winter Need Help until Spring

Bird lovers who feed songbirds that winter in Illinois should continue to feed them until spring, Tom Evans, of the state Department of Conservation advised today. Otherwise, he said, they may starve because they have learned to depend upon the handouts and have forgotten how to forage for themselves.

Evans, who mentioned cardinals, slate-colored juncos and chickadees among the species that winter in Illinois, said songbirds usually can withstand cold weather as long as food is available. They do not have to depend on handouts from humans. If conditions become too extreme, he said, many of the birds migrate further south. "During times of subnormal cold, when crusted snow seals weeds under an icy blanket, a station filled with sunflower seeds, cracked corn or other foods may provide the body fuel necessary to keep a songbird alive," Evans said, "but only in times of unusually cold weather is it necessary to feed songbirds, unless your purpose is to attract them to your home where you can observe them."

Vocational Education Panel Studying Cooperative Plan

Formation of a vocational advisory committee to aid the Granite City school district in developing a comprehensive education program is being studied.

Subject to board ratification, at a later meeting, the course will include family life education, drug abuse information and other instruction essential to students in maintaining good health.

Lavonne C. McCauley, principal of Granite City high school, discussed a self-evaluation program involving all GCHS faculty members and many citizens this spring and next fall, followed by a three-day review in 1971 by 20 to 25 visiting educators representing the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Dr. Keith Cavanaugh, superintendent of Morton East high school of Cicero, has agreed to head the preliminary evaluation and Norman Owca of GCHS will head the local steering committee, McCauley said.

Assistant GCHS Principal Thomas G. Noeth showed a film of North Central accreditation procedures.

Health Education Course

Owen E. Humphrey, curriculum coordinator, reviewed progress in developing a comprehensive health education program.

The committee of citizens, headed by Clifton E. Blankenship, A. Smith Corp. safety training director, is aiding school personnel in devising ways to solve unmet manpower and community needs, Wittengroff related.

He said the plan is expected to include a cooperative program in which qualified students spend part of each day in classrooms and part at business firms where they receive on-the-job vocational instruction.

Nixon, Agnew Among Smith's Campaigners

Cong. Edward J. Derwinski said Wednesday that President Nixon and Vice President Agnew will campaign in Illinois for U. S. Senator Ralph Tyler Smith (R., Ill.).

"Sen. Smith's campaign is steadily building steam," said Derwinski, the senator's Cook county campaign chairman. "He has the confidence of the Nixon-Agnew Administration and will be strongly aided by its popularity."

Derwinski told a Schaumburg GOP rally Tuesday night that Nixon and Agnew will make several appearances throughout the state for Sen. Smith after the primary.

"This is the first time in many years that the Republican party has an excellent chance of capturing control of the Senate," Derwinski declared. "It will pick up seven or eight seats, we will get needed action on the President's programs."

Smith will speak tonight at DeKalb, Ill., at a gathering honoring Illinois House Speaker Jack Walker.

Now all your U.S. Savings Bonds pay higher interest.

Now it's official.

Now one of the safest investments in the world brings you new and higher returns.

Now your U.S. Savings Bonds pay the highest interest in history: a full 5 per cent when held to maturity of 5 years and 10 months. (4% the first year; 5.20% thereafter to maturity.) Previously, these Bonds earned you only 4 1/4% if you held them for seven years.

The new interest began June 1, 1969. So all of the Bonds you own, no matter when you bought them, have been collecting higher interest since that time.

Those Bonds are still replaced if lost, stolen or burned. You can still buy them through Payroll Savings or the Bond-a-Month plan.

Bonds are safe. If lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace them. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Tax may be deferred until redemption. And always remember, Bonds are a proud way to save.

Take stock in America.

GC Alderman

Here I selected capable and efficient men."

Neither chief, when asked for their views by the Press-Record, would comment on the proposal.

No Changes Indicated

There was an indication that no immediate change in the proposal is contemplated by council members.

Author of the two ordinances has not been revealed, but several aldermen, who said they would rather not be named at the present time, told the Press-Record that the proposals have enough support to be approved and to override a veto, if the mayor "goes that route."

Some believe it is an attempt to make last year's mayor election and a move by the council majority to strip Mayor Partridge of every possible authority.

"On the Other Hand"

Others say the move is political, but in the other direction. That the mayor is trying to dictate too much to the department heads and that the council will permit the chiefs to run their own departments.

In the past, the council has managed to override most vetoes by Partridge.

This procedure of council appointment of chiefs is legal under state law and was carried out recently in Edwardsville, so if the matter should go to court, the council would win," one alderman said.

Another alderman commented that it was unlikely the public would care one way or the other. He stressed the need for the chiefs to be responsible to one man—the mayor—rather than 16 aldermen, but that the council will proceed to make the change.

Applications for admission to Eastern Illinois University for the fall quarter, 1970, are running well ahead of last year, according to Dr. Samuel J. Taber, acting dean, student academic services.

Taber also announced that transfer applications for admission for the fall quarter are substantially higher than last year at this time, but no immediate closure is contemplated for either transfer or graduate applications. Persons in both categories should apply for admission or readmission as soon as possible, he said.

Job Offers to 1970 College Grads Down by 20%

Job offers, nationwide, to 1970 college graduating seniors during the fall fell 20%, below the number in the fall of 1969, with most of the decline showing up in the technical fields of training, according to Herall Largent, Carbondale campus director of Southern Illinois University's Placement service.

Citing the year-end salary survey report of the College Placement Council on recruiting at 141 representative colleges and universities, including SIU, Largent said that thus far students majoring in technical disciplines have received 20% fewer offers than at this time last year, while offers to non-technical candidates remained about the same level as last year.

Salary averages have continued to go up, he said, but at a slower rate. Offers to non-technical candidates are up 4.9% from an average of $711 last June to $746, and for technical candidates 3.2% from $819 to $846. These gains compared with 5.3% for non-technical and 4.3% for technical for the preceding year.

Accounting majors rated the greatest demand, an increase of 7.2% as compared with a 2.1% increase in the fall of 1969 as compared with the fall of 1970.

Recruitment of doctoral candidates, expected to be cut back sharply, actually showed a 21% increase during the fall of 1969 as compared with the fall of 1970.

Admissions Curtailed At Illinois State U.

Applications for admission to Illinois State University, Normal, from new freshmen for the fall of 1970 are being curtailed, it was announced by Dean of Admissions and Records Wilbur R. Venable.

Dr. Venable said two departments, elementary and special education, have already reached their capacity for new freshmen for next fall and have been closed.

It is expected that enrollment capacities for entering freshmen in the remainder of the university will be reached in early February. Applications will be considered until that capacity is reached. After that date, applicants will either be placed on a waiting list for the fall or be considered for admission in the second semester of 1970-71.

Illinois State U. is expecting about 3700 new freshmen next fall, as compared with the 2200 enrolled this past fall. Venable pointed out that transfer and graduate applications are not affected at this time.

SIU Museum Exhibits Viewed by Thousands

More than 22,000 persons viewed loan exhibits of Southern Illinois University's museum at Carbondale during the 1968-69 fiscal year, according to the annual report of William Johnson, school loan supervisor.

This figure is undoubtedly several thousand above the low cause there is no way to determine how many people saw materials shown on television, in films, in university exhibits at the DuQuoin State Fair and elsewhere, in the SIU student yearbook and in a variety of other displays.

He does know that 472 items were loaned to area schools, university departments, women's clubs and other organizations, and that 19 of the borrowers reported a rose-count of 2,688 viewers.

Alton MECA Center Plans Registration

Second semester registration for the Alton Saturday Center of the Metropolitan Educational Center in the Arts will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Feb. 7 at Southern Illinois University-Southern campus, room 100 in the 3020 Levee street, Alton. The center offers instructional programs in the plastic arts, theatre, dance, film and creative writing. The MECA center enables fifth through 12th graders to work with professionals in the arts every Saturday during the school year.

Robert Mack, director of drama at Monticello college, directs the activities at the center. He may be contacted for additional information at the college.

Selection of winners is prepared and scored by Science Research Associates, Chicago. Schools of state winners are awarded sets of Encyclopedia Britannica.

Miss Wolfe, president of the Future Homemakers of America Club at high school, has taken courses in Home Economics since she enrolled in high school. She plans on going to college after graduation and will major either in English or Home Economics.

She is also the feature editor on the journalism staff of the school newspaper, The High World.

Gus Schalkham Featured In DeMolay Publication

Gus Schalkham of Granite City, who achieved the individual world marathon record of running 100 miles in 20 hours and 22 minutes, is featured in a story and picture appearing in the January issue of Cordons, a publication of the International DeMolay.

The local resident is a member of the James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolay, and is a student at the SIU-SW campus.

John Flamer, chairman of the local AAU long-distance running committee and track coach of SIU-SW, acted as coach for the long-distance record run.

Schalkham is the top runner on the Cougars intercollegiate cross country team and participates intramurally in soccer, softball and volleyball. In 1969, he was named the Intramural Athlete of the Year.

He became interested in athletics in 1956 when he became a member of the local DeMolay chapter and participated in District 4 DeMolay track meets where the James Stuart chapter placed second.

As records stand, a 40-year-old professional runner in Europe ran 144 miles in 24 hours in the 1920's, but young Schalkham is the first amateur and teenager to set the mark. He actually set the record the day before his 20th birthday.

He first attempted his marathon record last summer but could not continue his goal because of the excessive heat and humidity and ended at 79.6 miles.

Local DeMolays who served as markers for the track star are Mike Welser, Larry Wallace and Robin Teague.

3000 Student ID Cards Issued at Campus

Southern Illinois University-Southern campus issued nearly 3000 student ID cards since August, according to Linda North, an operator of the ID camera. The badges used to validate registration fees now have a new feature, color photos.

Twig and Leaf Blight Strike Sycamore Trees

By ALBERT MEYER
OF SIU NEWS SERVICE

Persons who have American sycamore trees around the home for shade probably are having trouble with dead twigs, loss of new leaves in the spring, and are wondering what may be wrong. It is a problem now quite prevalent with sycamore trees in eastern and central United States.

Paul Roth, Southern Illinois University assistant professor of forestry, says the trees probably are infected with a form of anthracnose, a fungus disease more commonly known as leaf and twig blight. It also will bother the common oaks and walnut trees, but is more noticeable on sycamore. It also is a disease of brambles and blackberries.

Anthracnose is the early spring problem for sycamore and will cause the tree to lose most of its first crop of leaves as they come out. However, it will not kill the tree and secondary leaf buds will come out later in the spring with new foliage. The trees then may have some large leaves that escaped the blight in the top and the rest will be covered with smaller leaves which develop later in the growing season.

Although the disease itself does not ordinarily kill the tree, annual loss of leaves in the spring will slow up growth and development and may weaken the tree so it loses resistance to other insect or disease pests that may kill it. Leaf and twig blight was quite extensive last spring, Roth says. Specialists list four stages for the disease. The first is twig blight which occurs before the leaves come out in spring. This kills the tips of small year-old twigs as the small black fruiting bodies of the fungus appear on the bark and girdle the twig. When there are repeated annual killings of the small twigs, little buds of bushy growth may develop on the branches and give the trees an ugly appearance.

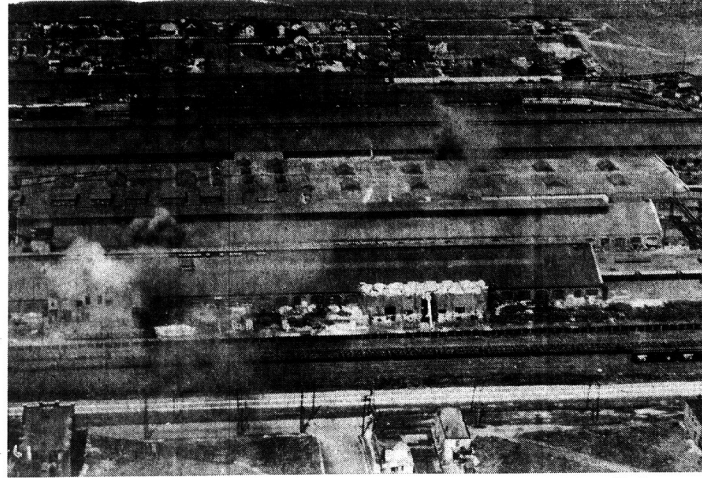

The next stage is bud blight which will kill the leaf buds as they begin to expand in April or early May. The buds that escape may get it in the next stage, which is shoot blight. The young immature expanding leaves will turn brown and die.

just as if they had been frozen. This often is confused with frost damage.

The fourth stage is called the leaf blight which hits directly at the new leaves and comes from the fungus spores produced on twig and branch cankers. Irregular brown blotches appear around diseased spots on the midribs and veins of the leaf. When leaves have reached this stage they generally do not fall immediately, but the fungus spreads from the leaves during the summer and fall to the twigs to which they are attached so the disease can overwinter there and break out again the following spring as twig blight.

The blight problem seems to be worse during a late, cold spring. It is most bothersome if the average daytime temperature is below 60 degrees during the two weeks when the sycamore leaves begin to come out and will cause the tree to lose most of its first crop of leaves as they come out. However, it will not kill the tree and secondary leaf buds will come out later in the spring with new foliage. The trees then may have some large leaves that escaped the blight in the top and the rest will be covered with smaller leaves which develop later in the growing season.

Sycamore trees that have been hit severely for several successive years may lose some small branches. Such trees should be given a treatment of spraying to stimulate growth. Spraying the tree with an organic mercury or Bordeaux mixture fungicide in the spring when the buds are swelling or the bud caps beginning to break open will help control the disease. A second treatment may be needed if cool weather lasts longer than two weeks. Since sycamore shade trees usually are quite large, spraying is a costly item that most homeowners would shy away from, Roth says. Sycamores are fast growing trees which makes them popular for ornamental and shade uses. Sycamore forest trees also are affected, but the species is not considered an important timber resource. Should anthracnose become a real threat to such more important timber trees as the oaks and walnut, control treatments might be financially more important and feasible.

Canal Freight Sets Record in 1969 — 46 Million Tons

Commercial freight shipped through the Chain of Rocks locks and canal during 1969 hit an all-time high total of 46,343,453 tons, or more than double the amount locked through the canal in the opening year of the 1960 decade, according to records of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers which operates the locks.

Records show that during 1960 the first year of the decade just ended, a total of 22,942,101 tons of freight moved through the canal and locks.

Freight shipments last year were an increase of 3,561,710 tons over 1968 tonnage of 43,072,743 tons which had marked the first year since the canal and locks opened in 1964 that freight movements had failed to show an annual increase.

The 1968 freight shipments fell behind the 1967 figure of 43,245,645 tons. With that exception, canal freight movements have jumped every year for 14 years.

Report December shipments of 1969 were listed following announcement of December freight movements totaling 3,859,291 tons, of which 1,835,676 tons moved up river and 2,023,615 tons were shipped down river. A total of 5412 vessels passed through the canal during December, requiring 800 lockages, the Army Engineers reported.

December freight shipments included: Petroleum products, 625,601 tons up river and 196,265 tons down river; grain, 42,300 tons up and 1,467,250 tons down; coal, 541,000 up and none down; cement, sand and gravel, 37,600 up and 41,100 down; sulphur, 2500 up and none down; miscellaneous commodities, 313,750 up and 40,400 down; iron and steel products, 31,450 up and 184,750 down; and chemicals, 161,525 up and 53,500 down.

The report showed a total of 910 towboats and 426 barges were locked through the canal during December. Other craft movements included 28 private recreation boats, three government towboats and 18 government barges, and 27 patrol boats.

November Set Record
The December freight shipments were a decrease of 968,122 tons below the 4,827,910 tons locked through the canal in November for an all-time record monthly freight volume.

The record November shipments included 2,424,337 tons moving up river and 2,402,681 tons moving down river.

The Army Engineers report showed that during the 1969 year a total of 61,827 vessels moved through the Chain of Rocks canal in a total of 11,002 lockages, compared to movement of 39,004 vessels using the locks in 1968 and requiring 11,196 lockages. Craft movements last year included 10,174 towboats with 49,139 barges hauling commercial freight, and 89 government towboats and 531 government barges. A total of 162 private recreation boats used the locks during the year, as well as 199 government patrol boats.

Records show that canal freight during the ten years of the 1960 decade totaled 369,426,181 tons, with the volume of freight shipments increasing steadily from year to year.

The 1969 shipments of 22,942,101 tons increased during 1961 to a total of 24,714,762 tons, and during 1962 climbed to 28,464,788 tons. Freight volume in 1963 amounted to 29,833,857 tons, increased to 32,911,533 tons during 1964 and totaled 35,926,212 tons for the 1965 year.

The steady increase in use of water transportation continued in 1966 and freight volume locked through the Chain of Rocks canal totaled 38,821,537 that year, growing to 43,245,645 during 1967.

Freight movements leveled off in 1968 and shipments for the year slipped slightly behind the previous year for a total of 43,072,743 tons. But freight movements regained their momentum last year for the new 46,343,453-ton record.

Favorite Loot—Guns, TV Sets

County's 1969 Burglary Losses Exceed $600,000

Television sets, particularly color models, and firearms appeared to be the main targets of burglars who looted homes in unincorporated areas of Madison county during 1969 of items valued at nearly $600,000, according to a report by the office of Sheriff George Musso of Edwardsville.

Sheriff's Deputies said that while there are no past records for comparison, the 1969 year was believed to have been the worst in the county's history for house burglaries in county areas.

On the basis of crime reports, items having a specific value of $225,085 were stolen from residences in unincorporated areas, while an additional $300,000 loss was estimated in items of unknown specific value. The latter items included the reported stolen but on which no value was given at the time the report was made to the sheriff's office.

Last April was listed as the worst month of the year for county burglaries, with losses of specific value totaling $64,000. Reports show that television sets and guns of all types made up two-thirds of the loot taken in house burglaries.

Records were maintained during 1969 by investigators Demos Nicholas and Robert Rizzo, who said they wanted to determine just how much was being taken in household items. Their report said a house burglary occurred at a rate of almost one on every day of the year, with the number of daylight burglaries climbing in proportion to national increases.

Although no area was exempt from burglaries during the year, the areas on the outskirts of Granite City, in Rosewood Heights and Godfrey appeared to be the hardest hit. Some homeowners were hit more than once, the investigator said.

Nicholas and Rizzo said they kept no records as to how much of the loot was recovered, but that very few television sets or guns ever were recovered in these types of thefts. They said their figures do not include the number of burglaries that occurred during the year in incorporated areas where such incidents are reported to local police departments, but that burglaries are believed to have increased sharply in these localities also.

The investigators' reports showed that January finished second for the largest number of burglaries, with $39,000 in stolen loot of known value. October was third with losses totaling $37,000.

Other months and losses of items with known value were: March, $27,000; September, $25,000; June $24,000; May $22,000; February, $17,000; July $16,000, and August and November with $15,000 each.

Nicholas said, "We figure this is about half the value of all items taken. Many victims don't state the value of stolen items and this includes some arrests were made in house burglaries, the majority of them remain unsolved, reports show."

Shriners Burn Center Explained

The Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children and the Shriners Burn Centers was the subject of the program Tuesday at the Granite City Rotary Club meeting at the YMCA, presented by Wayne Banks and Leo Lipe. They were introduced by Donald Adams program chairman.

The two Shriners showed colored slides and had tape recordings showing and explaining the treatment for the children at several Shrine Hospitals.

They stressed the treatment is free, and whenever anyone knows of a child who needs treatment for burns to call a Shiner who will visit the family and explain the care and treatment.

The speakers told of years of research which has brought about a new drug used to prevent infection in burn or skin graft cases.

Forty-four Rotarians attended the meeting presided over by President Carl Mathias. He announced a club assembly will be planned for next meeting with the induction of new members.

David Norton was appointed to serve as chairman for the Spring Chili Day, tentatively set for April.

An announcement was made that the club voted at their last meeting to purchase a portable stage for the park district at a cost of about $2500 from the proceeds of the recent Modern Living Show.

Portell Alleges Anti-Court Pressure by Mayor Partney

Circuit Clerk Willard V. Portell of Granite City this week described himself as an "advocate of local courts" and said his move to withdraw court services from Granite City was prompted by almost constant harassment by Mayor Donald Partney.

Portell provided copies of four letters concluding with a Jan. 21 letter from City Clerk Homer Peniston to Chief Circuit Judge Joseph J. Barr relating that Partney's Jan. 12 announcement of court janitor service curtailment after Feb. 1 "does not in any way reflect the feeling of the city council."

Peniston told Judge Barr that council members "wish to continue janitor services for the courts in the city hall at Granite City."

Suggests Township Action
Along with recalling incidents which he views as opposition by the mayor to court operations at the city hall, Portell advised the Press-Record Tuesday that he would favor an arrangement under which the townships of Granite City, Venice and Nameoki would jointly provide centrally-located courtrooms and clerical offices in the Quad-Cities.

Text of Portell's letter to the newspaper follows:
"In reading your (Jan. 22) editorial concerning the courts, I have come up with a few thoughts and facts that I felt you should know."

"In the first place, if you had been supplied with the background prior to the editorial I know it would not have been quite as critical as it was but with the data you had I believe it was fair."

"As you know with the inception of the Judicial Article, Judge (Fred P.) Schuman, the Tri-City Bar Association, Tri-City Chamber of Commerce, Granite City Press-Record and I were instrumental in keeping the court in Granite City."

"I have always advocated keeping the court in Granite City and will continue to do so, except in a case such as this, when we are told bluntly that we are not wanted by the spokesman of the city, who is the mayor."

"I am sending you all the correspondence that has been sent to different parties so that you may have a clear picture of what is going on at the present, but I would like to fill you in on what has gone on in the past."

"Continuous Criticism"
"There has been a continuous flow of criticism and badgering by the mayor upon the circuit clerk's office. I have no idea whether it is political or otherwise."

"I have never been an opponent or an ally of the mayor in politics and, since being elected clerk of the court, I have taken no part in city elections."

"However, since 1964 there has been criticism because the city had to pay Helen Homan, who was absorbed into our employment but had to be paid by the city. The mayor tried to assign her to other duties not relating to the courts."

"He has on many occasions insisted that we furnish janitor service. He has refused to paint the office while painting all other offices in the city hall."

"The circuit clerk had a magistrate office painted and paid for with fees, although contradictory to the law, but it was a necessity."

"At one time the courtroom was taken from us without consultation prior to that date and we had to immediately implement a courtroom for the magistrate division."

"All in all, I believe the clerk's office has done a tremendous job, although it sounds like a bit of bragging, due to the continuous harassment we have had from the chief executive of Granite City."

"It seems to me that it is hard for him to realize that this is a separate office and not a part of the city administration."

"These are the things that should be discussed and I am willing at any time to discuss these."

"You can rest assured that since I was one of the originators of the court in Granite City that I would be one of the last to take them out of Granite City. However, I think I have a better plan."

"You may help us as editor of the Granite City Press-Record if you are in accord. There is a provision in the state statute for townships to provide for courts."

"Since the Granite City courts and clerk's office service Granite City, Venice and Nameoki townships, it is my suggestion that these three townships combine their services on the magistrate level by providing centrally-located courtrooms and clerk's offices with ample parking facilities, such as we have in other magistrate areas in other townships."

"Since this office services all townships, it would be a burden on the taxpayers of all these townships rather than Granite City."

IPC Air Control Plan Approved
An augmented program of the Illinois Power Co. for controlling emissions at its power plants has been approved by the Illinois State Air Pollution Control Board, it was announced today.

The plan calls for installation of anti-pollution equipment at three of its four power plants now in operation. Its new plant which will have one unit in operation this year and a second unit in 1973, the use of gas as fuel when possible and the phasing out of operations at its oldest plant.

Cost of the program over the next four years is estimated at more than $16 millions in construction alone.

At the new Baldwin Power Plant an electrostatic precipitator rated at 99% efficient in collecting particulate matter and costing $2.5 million will be used on the unit. Other projects include an electrostatic precipitator on the Wood River Power Plant's largest unit at a cost of more than $2 million. This work is to be done this year.

At a nearby $3 million electrostatic precipitator will be installed on Unit No. 2 at the Hennepin Power plant, and the 1973 electrostatic precipitators will be installed on units one and two at the Vermilion power plant near Danville at a cost of $3.7 millions.

"It costs the county of Madison approximately $10,000 extra annually to supply these services to the Quad-Cities people. I know from talking to the county board officers that they are willing to continue to do this."

"Lastly, for background, I would like for it to be known that I, along with the help of others, helped Granite City maintain their courts."

"I also helped the city of Collinsville establish a court over the objections of Mayor Weber of Collinsville and also with the full cooperation, personally helped a great deal to establish courts in Alton, East Alton, Wood River and Edwardsville and initiated hearings in the cities of Madison and Heights on a one-day-a-week basis."

"So, with all of this background I believe you can say without any doubt that I am an advocate of local courts, the clerk concluded."

City Financial Squeeze
The mayor had cited the financial position of the city in informing the circuit clerk that after Feb. 1 "the city will not have the funds to maintain the courts in city hall with janitor services."

On Jan. 15, Portell wrote Judge Barr that "we have had this discussion before with the mayor and the city council regarding curtailment of the courts in city hall with janitor services. I believe the Supreme Court rule is simply this, that if the cities want courts, they must provide them."

"Needless to say, the Board of Supervisors will not furnish janitor services in the city hall in which we have courts."

"If all courts were centrally located, especially on the magistrate level, it would be a tremendous saving on personnel for the clerk's office."

"With all these things in mind, and after careful determination, it is my suggestion and recommendation that we move the courts from Granite City to the county seat in Edwardsville," Portell told the chief judge.

Judge Barr on Jan. 20 wrote Mayor Partney that "while it is true that it would be an expense more efficient to have all of the court hearings scheduled in Edwardsville, we have always tried to maintain area courts in order to better serve the needs of the local citizens, and to be more available to city personnel."

"While our clerks and magistrates can manage to perform their duties under some measure of inconvenience, I can see that a complete absence of janitor service might make it impossible for the city hall to function."

"I would like to meet with you and Judge Schuman and such other city personnel as you may desire to participate."

"Also, I could ask the chairman of the county board (Harold Landolt) and the chairman of the courthouse committee (Orville Oglesby) to also attend but, as indicated in Mr. Portell's letter, assistance of this nature to be furnished by the Board of Supervisors has been indicated in this case for any municipality in Madison county, their presence may not be necessary."

Winter Damage To GC Streets Being Repaired
Winter weather damage to streets in Granite City is being repaired as quickly as possible now that the ice has melted. It was reported during Monday night's council session.

Alderman Nonn, substituting for Alderman Boyd, Street committee chairman who is recuperating from back surgery, said alleys in some areas are in deplorable condition and large holes have developed in streets — even paved streets.

"The department is doing the best it can, being shorthanded because of men on the sewer pumps," Nonn stated.

Alderman Green called upon the mayor to again write railroads to repair crossings in the city. "We need to keep them in bad condition," he added.

Acceptance of a concrete street and sanitary sewers in the second addition to Wilson Park Estates was recommended by the city engineer, but Nonn called for delay of several weeks to review the condition of the street after the thawing.

Polios asked that a date for reopening the 2100 block of Iowa street be determined. The street was closed last year for construction of an annex at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Approval was given for George Grove to install a driveway on 23rd street for the new quarters of Grace Plumbing & Heating Co., 2301 Washington avenue.

Law to Control Outside Jobs for City Employees Fails

An ordinance requiring city employees to obtain permission from their department head to hold an outside job failed to gain approval during Monday night's Granite City council session.

The deciding vote was by Mayor Partney, who commented he did not want to see "the chiefs' head go on the chopping block."

The mayor added that he believed the council should assume the responsibility for granting the permission so the department heads will not be burdened with a task that might upset the harmony of the departments.

Council vote on the ordinance was 8-to-6, with Mayor Partney adding a "no" vote to make the tally 8-7. A majority vote by elected aldermen and voters is required to approve an ordinance. Aldermen Boyd and Partney were absent.

Debate on the issue was carried out for two weeks before the ordinance was placed on first reading last week.

No Control at Present

At present, there is no ordinance controlling outside jobs held by city employees, and a number do part-time work, it was brought out during the debates.

In other business, the council voted for strict enforcement which forbids placing candidate or any type of posters on utility poles. County chairmen of the Democratic and Republican committees are to be advised of the city law and asked to pass the information on to candidates.

Comments were made that stickers from campaigns of several past years still are in evidence on poles and even stop signs.

Alderman Nunn called for the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. to be required to install a larger water line for fire protection purposes at the proposed site of a 100-bed nursing home along Rock road and for a proposed new subdivision along West 22nd street.

Several complaints were made by Alderman Dallas, who asked the city inspector and building inspector to visit rental property in the "behind the mill" area — occupied and vacant — and to proceed with notification to the property owners to repair or raze.

"There are windows falling out, exposed wires and collapsing floors in some of those homes that people are living in," he pointed out.

White Powder Complaint

Dallas' complaint on fine white powder invading his home was taken up by Alderman Baker, chairman of the council's Air Pollution committee, who said he would visit the Dallas home at 3001 East 20th street and would refer the matter to the local control board's technical secretary.

Mayor Partney commented that the city has no enforcement powers for air pollution control, since the state board refuses to grant the city an exemption. "If we could get an exemption, we could qualify for federal funds and could set up endorsement procedures, but the state won't help us. They wouldn't even put the area of office here, but established it at Collinsville."

"We have good men on our local commission, and they are getting disgusted because their hands are tied by the state," the mayor added.

As city liquor commissioner, Mayor Partney gave approval for beer to be served during a square dance to be held Saturday in the parish hall at St. Joseph Catholic Church. The request was made by Rev. Martin Mangin, pastor.

Bids for a $120,219 bond for the city treasurer as tax collector, and bids for new police cars were referred to committees for recommendations next week.

Income Tax Aid by IRS Agents on Monday

Quad-City area taxpayers may get local assistance with their federal tax problems from a representative of the Internal Revenue Service one day a week, according to Jay G. Philpott, district director of IRS for central and southern Illinois.

An IRS representative will answer questions on tax problems each Monday through April 13, in the city hall of Granite City, from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. The office is on the third floor of the city hall.

Persons seeking information about Illinois state income tax may telephone 1-800-972-1630 (toll free).

County Problems Meet Set in Area Wednesday

The County Problems Study Commission, composed of legislators and public members and charged with conducting a series of public meetings on county problems, will hold a meeting in the Holiday Inn at Sunset Hill next Wednesday, beginning at 10 a.m., according to State Rep. Clarence E. Neff of St. Louis, chairman.

The Sunset Hill session will follow similar hearings on Monday in Olney and on Tuesday in Effingham.

Neff said the commission has divided the state into 14 areas of seven or eight counties each for the purpose of holding the public hearings and that any person or representatives of organizations are invited to attend. The meetings begin at 10 a.m. and continue until all who wish to speak have been heard, Neff said.

The commission chairman said he wished to stress that the meetings are not confined to county board and commission members and that anyone may take part.

Some of the problems already encountered at hearings, Neff said, include alternatives of county boards in complying with the one-man-one-vote decision of the Supreme Court; corner salaries and earnings; abolition of the jury commission and the transfer of its functions to the county board; voter registration problems wherever there is a state university, and more authority for county boards in the operation of the county government.

City Calls for Dredging Nameoki Area Ditches

Cleaning and dredging the Nameoki area storm water drainage ditch—even if the city has to take the levee district to court—was recommended at Monday night's council session by Alderman Dawes.

"We don't want a repeat of the property damage that occurred with last summer's flooding, and I believe it can be prevented if the city acts early in asking the levee district to clean the ditch, and dredge it."

"It is filling up with silt and plenty of debris, including old tires," Alderman Dawes pointed out, asking the proper procedure to get the job done.

In his report, the engineer stated that planned development of the area south of Pontoon road east of the railroad tracks can be properly drained with adequate lines and catch-basins. Nomm remarked that he has heard the plans for the development call for a 17 ft. x 11 ft. ditch. The alderman said he would oppose such a development in the residential area that features expensive homes.

The engineer pointed out that drainage has been blocked because of man-made earthen dams created by the developers of the area.

He was instructed to advise all developers ordering them to correct the drainage pipe problem and to remove any dams that obstruct drainage.

Bold Approach at Romeoville, Ill. To Solving Spiraling School Tax Burden—the 45-15 Learning Plan

(Current Report, Illinois State Chamber of Commerce)

One of the most exciting changes to occur in the Illinois education scene in many years makes its debut at Valley View District 96, Romeoville, next June.

Using the basic concept of operating school facilities on a year-round basis, District 96 will commence a student scheduling plan that offers success where previous plans—tried off-and-on since the nation since 1904—have failed or been abandoned.

Called the 45-15 plan, it proposes to break the long nine-month continuous school year into four 45-school-day learning sessions, each followed by a 15-school-day pupil vacation.

This scheduling will thus allow more frequent intervals whereby the slow learning can advance more appropriately.

Instead of three long summer months of vacation, the pupil will have a chance to relax and make a fresh start in school by enjoying a 15-day vacation each spring, summer, fall and winter.

In addition, all presently established holidays will be observed.

Under this arrangement, parents can plan vacations for Florida in the winter, Vermont in the spring, the north woods during summer or hiking up the Smoky Mountains in the fall.

Vacation opportunity and shortened—but more frequent—learning sessions were not the prime motivation for Valley View's 45-15 approach.

The plan was born of the necessity to acquire more classroom space in an overcrowded school building that had reached the limit of its bonding power for the construction of new schools.

Under the plan, only three-fourths of the student body will be in school at any one time while the other one-fourth of the student body is on vacation.

By staggering entrance dates for one-fourth of the students every 15 days, the first group to enter will complete its 45 days of learning and go on vacation the day the fourth group enters.

After fifteen days later, when the first group returns, the second group commences its vacation and so on throughout the year.

Classroom space is automatically increased by 33% without additional construction.

Rather than closing down schools three months during the summer, the plan provides continuous operation except for two weeks of complete closing for major renovation and to provide recycling adjustments of the 45-15 plan to fit the coming year's calendar.

Through the use of computers, Valley View anticipates being able to have all their children in the same cycle as well as all children from the same general neighborhood.

This arrangement reduces by 25% the geographical area covered by school buses.

Fewer desks, textbooks, library books, audiovisual items, etc., will need to be purchased to serve an increased number of students.

Unheard of two years ago, the 45-15 plan is rapidly gaining regional, state, and nationwide attention.

Among the many flexible possibilities for improving the quality of education is the opportunity for professionally trained teachers to practice their profession for 11½ months a year and teach one-third more students without overcrowding classrooms.

The ultimate success of this plan is dependent upon total community support and understanding.

This means, parents, churches, service clubs, civic leaders and most important—business and industry.

For years, the business community has decried the inefficient use of school plant.

No business could continue in operation by shutting down its plant for a year.

Valley View has taken a businesslike approach to resolving a classroom space problem. It has accepted the challenge of change.

Steadfast Goals, Changing Programs Help Keep the 126-Year-Old YMCA Young, Strong

YMCA Week spotlights the local and international Young Men's Christian Association and its ability to adapt to the changing lives and needs of the public. Started in London in 1844 by a handful of charter members, it has grown to include more than 5,650,000 members in the United States alone, 1725 of them at the Tri-City Area "Y" in Granite City.

Although it has accepted desirable changes in its programs and methods to develop the bodies, mind and spirits of its members according to the principles, but not necessarily the dogma, of Christianity, Change is reflected in numerous YMCA programs designed to meet the demands of the times.

More than 1200 programs in low-income neighborhoods in the U. S. meet a range of human needs from job training to untangling complex personal lives. Indian Guides give fathers and young sons, who always attend together, a special time for constructive companionship. 130 participated in this activity here in 1969. Tri-Hi-Y clubs and the Teen Town serve older youths. Camping programs bring youngsters and families closer to nature and to each other. Other common denominators include activities serve other objectives, including physical activities, plus a little known "Y" service, personal problem interviews, which numbered more than 100 last year.

Innovations like women on "Y" boards—25% of YMCA members are women and girls—and youth membership on the national board are examples of further change.

Here, as in other communities across the U. S., in Canada and around the world, there are countless people whose lives have been changed and are being changed by the work of the YMCA. Its commitment to bring about change and flexible methods assures that it will have the strength in the 1970s and beyond to survive as a force for good in a world which would be more turbulent and difficult without it.

Stopsigns, Turn Signals for Route 203

The Venice school board and Eagle Park Improvement Association are right in urging installation of stopsigns and turn lights on Route 203 south of Madison at Harrison avenue, the only Eagle Park area access street not impeded by unguarded railroad crossings. The number of autos turning at this intersection is creating serious hazards.

Route 203 is enough of an artery to justify the expediting of its traffic, but we would suggest that the Harrison street intersection be improved by the installation of stopsigns and turn lights on Route 203 south of Madison at Harrison avenue, the only Eagle Park area access street not impeded by unguarded railroad crossings. The number of autos turning at this intersection is creating serious hazards.

County Proving Old Taxes Can Be Collected

The Madison County Board of Supervisors, Treasurer John Maers, State's Attorney R. W. Griffith and Tax Commission Chairman Gilbert Killinger deserve plaudits for their efforts to collect delinquent real estate and personal property taxes.

Through the end of 1969, the county had recovered $452,393, including $349,713 from delinquent real estate taxes and $102,677 under a procedure of filing small claims suits for unpaid personal taxes. The total, which will grow, already represents a big dent in the estimated $3 million delinquencies.

How About Supercalifragilistic-expialadocious?

Before the first month of the new year is gone, we would like to add to the reviews of 1969 one final milestone. It was the year we succeeded in finding an article—and sufficient space—which enabled us to use in a headline the word "antidistastabismarianism."

There is no residence requirement now for a candidate for Congress and this works no harm in the state. Eliminating the residence requirement for this one legislative election each year will reduce the likelihood that a man will be drawn out of personal or partisan spite.

The reading at-large requirement of legislation pending should be eliminated, though there should be at least three legislative days before final action can be taken by either chamber.

Filibusters in Illinois are supported by a demand for reading bills in full, as the constitution requires. This mandate is obviously unworkable today, but it curbs to avoid undue haste should remain part of the Constitution.

The present limitation of $250,000 indebtedness should be removed, but any indebtedness incurred by the state should require a two-thirds vote of the members of the General Assembly.

The full faith and credit of the state should then back the bonds. Bonds should not be issued without the two-thirds requirement, for we have taken the easy route in Illinois in the past.

Success of 'Con Con' Is Essential In Order for Illinois to Progress

By LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR PAUL SIMON

Those who will write the history of Illinois at the turn of the century will look back upon the 1970 Constitutional Convention as an important event in the path forward for Illinois, or as a meaningless diversion when the state needed no diversion but direction.

My hope—and that is all it can be at this point—is that history's judgment will be favorable. For I sense a feeling of purpose and dedication by the Convention membership that bodes well for the end product for the people of our state.

By way of general introduction to more specific recommendations I suggest:

1. The document should be flexible insofar as possible, dealing in principles rather than details, keeping in mind Justice Cardozo's admonition that constitutions are "not rules for the passing hour, but principles for an expanding future."

2. The articles be presented to the general public one at a time, so that a controversial article will not scuttle the entire end product.

3. The Convention proceed slowly enough to do a thorough job, carefully avoiding an excessively prolonged convention which will sour the public on your proposals.

In the area of specifics, I recommend:

Regarding Article IV (Legislature) —

1. There should be co-extensive boundaries for House and Senate districts. You may also want to consider a somewhat smaller number than is now in the General Assembly.

Only two states have larger Senates and only four have a larger House. My own experience was that a House with 153 members was a better legislative body than one of 177 members.

2. When a vacancy occurs due to death or resignation in the House or Senate, the general election is more than 180 days distant, the State Central Committee of political party formerly represented shall submit the names of three persons who reside in that district, one of whom shall be elected by the governor to fill the balance of the House or Senate term.

3. The governor's costly procedures of a special election and, more important, assures representation for all citizens.

4. The provision would work for the State Senate in the same way it does for the United States Senate, providing for election for the two-year term of the term if more than two years remain.

5. The residence requirement for a candidate for the House or Senate should be waived for the election immediately following each reappointment. This avoids the occasional attempts to delineate maps in such a way that someone is "drawn out" of his district.

6. There is no residence requirement now for a candidate for Congress and this works no harm in the state. Eliminating the residence requirement for this one legislative election each year will reduce the likelihood that a man will be drawn out of personal or partisan spite.

7. The reading at-large requirement of legislation pending should be eliminated, though there should be at least three legislative days before final action can be taken by either chamber.

8. Filibusters in Illinois are supported by a demand for reading bills in full, as the constitution requires. This mandate is obviously unworkable today, but it curbs to avoid undue haste should remain part of the Constitution.

9. The present limitation of $250,000 indebtedness should be removed, but any indebtedness incurred by the state should require a two-thirds vote of the members of the General Assembly.

10. The full faith and credit of the state should then back the bonds. Bonds should not be issued without the two-thirds requirement, for we have taken the easy route in Illinois in the past.

25 YEARS AGO

JANUARY 29, 1945

The East Side Manufacturers Association observed its silver anniversary, with President Hayward Niedringhaus of Granite City Steel Co., member of the original board of directors of the association, as guest of honor. Niedringhaus reviewed the early history. All 16 major industries in the group were represented. M. D. Conroy, president of the association for the past five years, helped incorporate it. After annual reports by Treasurer Earl F. Varnum and Secretary G. W. Hoelscher, the group elected as directors J. F. Byrne, H. W. Curry, L. F. Guley, George Simches, Hayden Tanner, C. H. Walcher, Lafayette Young, Varnum and Conroy.

Henry D. Karandjoff was elected as president of the Coordinating Youth Service, an organization created recently to combat juvenile delinquency. Leroy Lars is vice-president, George Warren secretary and E. H. Myers, treasurer. Directors include Aldermen Charles Moerlein, Jack Morgan and Al Ward, W. Milton Worthen, Paul A. Grigby, Wensel Brown, Miss Florence Groshong, James Adamson, Harold Thomas, Dr. A. Ralph Lynn, Fr. Michael Costello, E. G. Schmitt, M. R. Allen, Supervisor Louis Romann, Fred Heely Jr. and C. Dallas Zinn.

Second Lieut. Ferd J. Pieper, navigator on a B-17 Flying Fortress of the 95th Bombardment Group, an Eighth Air Force component, is making heavy bombing attacks on vital Nazi targets in Germany and in support of Allied ground forces on the continent. He is a member of the Fortress group which led the first American bombing of targets in Berlin.

A 25-year ban against women reportedly has been lifted by the Hyde Park club, Venice gambling casino, apparently because the war has kept many male patrons away and there was a lack of patronage.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mussa of Venice had as their guests Mrs. Mazie Payne of Hillsboro, Ill.

Mrs. Harold Rogers was hostess to the Mothers' Study Club in her home. Ruth Wilcox with favorite classical songs and the club discussed again entertaining at the USO. Prices during the evening went to Mesdames Frank Hill, J. J. Ropac and Rose Ratkovich, a guest.

COURAGEOUS STANDS BY MUDGE AGAINST DALEY

To the Editor: I enjoyed your editorial focusing on the courage of Mayor Dick Mudge in his bid for the Democratic nomination to Madison County Jan. 9 to oppose Dick H. Mudge Jr. in his bid for the Democratic nomination to the State Senate.

Why did these busy officials travel so far in an effort to block Mudge even before the primary campaign has really started?

Do believe that you hit close to the mark when you suggested that the recent announcement may be connected with the mayor of Chicago. Dick Mudge for many years has been the most outspoken Democratic insider in our area who has stood up to the mayor of Chicago.

That type of courage is what we need in our government and that need cuts across party lines.

The voters in the Democratic primary this March will indeed have a choice. Here's to Mudge for senator.

YULE MAIL SHOWED MANY CARE ABOUT SERVICEMEN

Citizens of Granite City would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to all of those who remembered me and so many more servicemen in the past holiday season with so many thoughtful cards.

I had never realized there were people who really cared about me. It was like receiving cards from people I've known for years.

I received a card from Paula Broadway, president of the Junior Red Cross club of Madison senior high school and returned the thought to her. A week later, I received a note of thanks.

I received a card from Ginny Kuhn, City President. She expressed her thanks for me giving up family and friends to serve my country. Her card especially touched me. It was really beautiful.

I would like to commend the Granite City Press-Record for compiling and printing the Yule Mail Call. You have made me feel I was right in enlisting.

To all of you, I dedicate four years. God bless you.

Thanks to Aunt Marie and Mrs. Warren MacZara.

INKING THE CONTRACT for the Granite City Jaycees' "Championship Rodeo" set for July 18-19 at Tri-City Speedway, are Tomch Heartsill, H Bar C stock contractor and producer, Salem, Ia. (left), Gary Davis, Jaycee Rodeo co-chairman (right), and Chuck Smith of Pauls Valley, Okla., International Rodeo Association field representative.

GC Jaycees Sign-Up Top Rodeo Performers

Enthusiased at the prospect of directing the biggest project in the history of the Granite City Jaycees—an "International Championship Rodeo"—Gary Davis and Ron Degonia, rodeo co-chairmen, returned last week from Louisiana with the promise that many top-ranked rodeo performers will appear here this summer.

The local Jaycee representatives attended the 8th annual convention of the International Rodeo Association, in Monroe, La., where they discussed plans with IRA officials for the championship rodeo event, to be staged at the Tri-City Speedway Saturday and Sunday, July 18-19.

Davis and Degonia also secured the signature of one of the country's top stockmen-producers, Tomch Heartsill of the H-Bar-C in Salem, Ia., to furnish stock for the two-day show.

In addition to getting "plenty of good advice on how to prepare for a large rodeo in one's hometown," Davis said the Granite Cityans were invited to the convention's annual awards banquet at the Monroe Civic Center, at which time, the world championship cowboys received trophies, sashes, belt buckles and other awards.

Queen Contest Idea More than 300 attending the banquet also witnessed the selection and crowning of Miss Diana Flynn of Tulsa, Okla., as queen. Miss Rodeo U.S.A. 1970. A contest to name a local Rodeo Queen may be incorporated into the Granite City show, Davis hinted.

Named as "All-Around Cowboy for 1969" was Jack Wiseman Jr. of Houston, Tex., who also won first place honors in the bull riding championship.

The "All-Around" award is the most coveted championship. Davis reported, noting that it can only be won by a cowboy who wins more prize money in two or more championship events—a rider with an ability to win more than any other competitor.

Davis explained that when a rodeo is sanctioned by the International Rodeo Association, a local contest will draw some or all of the IRA Champions and that all competition will be held under a set of rules established by the entire IRA board.

Legal Opinions Sought On 3 GC Council Issues

Mayor Partney's authority to order layoffs was challenged at the outset of his economy proposal early this month and was questioned again Monday night by Alderman Robertson, who called for two written legal opinions from City Atty. Scroggins.

Robertson called for the opinion on the mayor's layoff authority early in the meeting, and when City Atty. Scroggins had no written document, Robertson asked that one be prepared for the next council session.

The lawyer said he did not think one would be necessary for this week's meeting since the mayor had announced last week that he did not plan to proceed with layoffs as the First Granite City National Bank had agreed to lend money to the city at 8 1/2 percent.

A letter from Robertson also called for a written legal opinion on the city ordinance specifying what city officials can be paid by the mayor. The council contends only city officers appointed by the mayor are involved, while Partney said he has been advised city officers include policemen and firemen.

Later in the meeting, Robertson called for a complete audit on all funds spent for sewer break repairs. "We've heard a lot of figures, and the people are asking questions. The auditor has agreed to do the job under his present contract without any extra cost to the city."

Mayor Partney said that as long as there was no added cost, he was in favor of the audit.

The estimates for repairs, dating back for nearly a year, are approaching the $300,000 mark. The city has been promised $700,000 federal fund aid, and has made supplemental applications for additional funds as other breaks have occurred. Additional sewer breaks are anticipated this spring.

Another legal opinion from Scroggins was requested by Alderman Moerlein, who said he had visited the sewer bond issue legal firm in Chicago recently and was advised the city might be able to borrow funds from Nameoki area sanitary sewer system surplus accounts, provided arrangements were made to repay the money spent on sewer repairs.

He called for a meeting of the Finance committee, which he heads, and the city attorney and Treasurer E. R. Rich to go over the possibility within the next few days.

Robertson added that the Finance committee, composed of Moerlein, Boyd and Robertson, had reviewed the situation earlier Monday and see it as a possible means to provide funds from the sewer accounts to pay the repair bills.

"It might be possible," Moerlein added, "as long as the city can keep up the bond payments and maintain a reserve account." He estimated that about $300,000 would be available, but since a large portion of the money is invested in interest-bearing government certificates, that the city might not want to try to get all of it at once.

He stated further that the city should use every possible means to hold down insurance of tax anticipation warrants for which the city would have to pay 5 1/2 percent.

The monthly reports on the Nameoki area sanitary sewer system were presented to the council Monday night and show the following balances for Dec. 31—

Nameoki area sewerage fund, $305,970; reserve fund, $198,457; special sewer construction fund, $27,758; Area 2 sewerage fund, $98,781; sewer extension fund, $15,853.

The reports also show a balance of $364,753 in the sewage treatment plant fund and $18,704 in the sewage treatment plant construction fund; along with balances of $20,118 in the Area No. 3 construction fund for the storm sewers and sanitary sewers in North Granite and $15,686 in Area 3 sewerage fund.

SOME IMPORTANT REASONS FOR EMPLOYING A "Realtor"

THIS MESSAGE PARTICULARLY DIRECTED TO PEOPLE SELLING THEIR OWN HOME.

If you love talking to strange people at strange hours, by all means sell your home yourself. That "For Sale by Owner" sign in your front yard means you're fair game for everyone—even those passersby who "just kinda wanted to see what the place looked like."

You might get lucky and save a buck or two. At lot of folks have tried to sell their own homes and succeeded. A lot more have just tried.

Most people realize that selling your own home can be a costly, time-consuming, even risky affair. And unless you're just naturally lucky, you need the help of a professional "Realtor." He can save you a lot of time and headaches. For a lot of good reasons.

If you're thinking about selling your own home, maybe you should consider some of them.

The first thing a Realtor can do for you is recommend a fair and reasonable asking price. Do it yourself and you will probably ask too much or too little. Either way you lose. Don't be fooled by the belief you know pretty well what your home is worth. Market demand, seasonality of sale, location and many other variables often alter your home's value.

A skilled Realtor knows all about these things. Most important, he knows people.

A Realtor will screen the prospects. He'll know their needs, desires and financial situation. And he'll know who is seriously looking for a home. Best of all, he'll show your house only when it's convenient for you.

Remember, look for the "Realtor" Emblem.

BRIDAL SHOWER FOR CINDY SETTLEMOIR

Miss Cindy Settlemoir was guest of honor at a pre-wedding shower hosted by her mother, Mrs. James Strack, Sunday evening at the Strack home, 2137 Lynch avenue.

Miss Settlemoir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Settlemoir, 2832 Dale avenue, will become the bride of Michael Hoy on Jan. 30. The 7 p.m. ceremony will take place at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church.

Mr. Hoy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hoy, 3309 Lynch avenue. The bride-to-be is employed at the Pet Milk Co. in St. Louis, and her fiancé is a student at the University of Illinois in Champaign. The couple will reside in Champaign.

A shower umbrella decorated the gift table and Miss Elizabeth Settlemoir prepared a ribbon and bow keepsake bouquet for her sister.

The guests enjoyed an evening of games, and the hostess served refreshments of cookies, punch, coffee and a heart-shaped cake decorated with cupid and bells. The serving table was covered with a royal blue cloth and white lace overcloth, and held a bride centerpiece.

Guests present included Mrs. Edward Settlemoir and Mrs. Clarence Hoy and Mesdames Robert Hilker, Ben Strack, Louis Reznick, Dean Talley, Paul Reynolds, Walter Pfaff, Harry Leffler, Herman Wood, John Kutz and Winston Hoy.

Mothers' Porchlight March Sunday in Granite City

The traditional "Mothers Porchlight March" in Granite City and suburban areas will take place Sunday, with volunteer marchers seeking funds for the March of Dimes Foundation's research programs and treatment centers.

In their 1970 "Fight Against Birth Defects," the March of Dimes Foundation, the Madison County MDD Chapter and local volunteer groups, all emphasize the importance of continuing work already started in the fields of birth defects diagnosis, treatment of infant victims of birth abnormalities and in prenatal care preventive programs.

Mrs. David (Carolina) Fox, Mothers March chairman, and Mrs. Robert (Patricia) Blankenship and Mrs. Hector (Dolores) Zevallos, campaign leaders, today urged local residents "to light up front porches and yards and welcome the volunteer marcher who calls at your home on Sunday."

"As the March of Dimes Foundation continues the second decade of its fight to prevent birth defects and their mentally or physically disabling aftereffects—the army of dedicated physicians, research scientists, volunteers and contributing public who are the March of Dimes can measure solid progress," the co-chairmen said.

As it did in the conquest of polio, the Foundation has attacked birth defects by assuming the responsibilities of leadership by recognizing neglect and trying to correct it, and by

YMCA Urges--Exercise To Have Good Health

The link between exercise and health was cited today by Forrest Cockrell, assistant exercise director of the Tri-City Area YMCA, as the "Y" continued its observance of YMCA Week Jan. 25-Feb. 1.

"Are you a seasonal exerciser? If you're an average American, you are," Cockrell said. "And right now you're in the off-season and need to do something about it."

"Winter finds the typical seasonal exerciser curled up in front of the television set with a bowl of popcorn or riding in a heated car from one place to another."

"By spring, he or she will likely have just enough strength to make a pass over the yard with a lawnmower—whether a big strong man or an ordinary-sized housewife."

"Summer is another story. Long weekends which include golf, swimming, water skiing, and perhaps a bit of tennis or dancing half the night, tone you up and by fall you're enjoying the whole thing—and busy with resolutions to exercise and stay fit all year through the winter."

"Getting up on cold dark mornings, though, discourages thoughts of jogging or bicycling, and exercising to some TV health program seems unavailing. Your resolutions fade out fast."

Group Activities Best

"Experience has shown that most people find it easier to exercise with someone," Cockrell noted. "Social pressure is an excellent discipline to keep up an exercise program."

Exercise, he says, as he sees it, means more than just "1, 2, 3 bend" and muscular and weight control.

The goal is physical fitness—to feel good all the way through when joining in any of a dozen or more sports: an exciting swim, a demanding handball contest or even a brisk walk down the street.

"Actually, it means to feel good at all the time," Cockrell explained.

"Don't fall into the winter off-season exercise doldrums. It only takes four simple steps to avoid them."

"One: ask your doctor about exercise for you. If there are special limitations in your case, he will tell you."

"Two: once medically cleared, throw overboard antique notions of exercise. Bicycling, swimming, jogging, dancing and sports are all good exercise and they're fun."

"Three: set aside some definite period each day when you can—and will—power your body to life."

"Four: you are now ready to reach for that top physical condition."

Find an organization where you can join in exercise activities with others — the YMCA, a local athletic club or some other group. You'll do more of it because you'll enjoy it more.

"Exercise strengthens your heart, lungs and muscles, it improves your circulation and it's nature's own tranquilizer."

"Exercise does this by putting your vital organs to work — something they don't do when you are bound to a desk all day and flop into an easy chair in the long winter evenings."

"To be physically fit means that everything you do is more fun and that, if necessary, you can roll better with life's punches. You can't ask for more than that, can you?"

"Why not stop by the local YMCA and let one of the staff members help you plan your exercise program?"
